

Getting involved with OMSI is good business

Achieve your company’s philanthropic, community relations, business development, and marketing goals. Reach more than one million annual visitors and, through our outreach and adult programs, a public that extends far beyond the museum’s walls. Make science education relevant to young people who lead the future of innovation and sustainability.

Learn how an OMSI partnership can benefit your business and meet your unique needs. Contact our Director of Strategic Partnerships, Erin Graham, at 503 797 4600 or egraham@omsi.edu.
